ONE MORE VICTIM

May Die From Injuries in C. and O. Wreck—Miss Madeline Lazar, of St. Louis, in Serious Condition

Judge Halsey Recovering and Will Leave Today With His Wife's Remains For Milwaukee

All the wreck victims of Wednesday's C. and O. Lawrence creek horror, are on the road to recovery, save Miss Madeline Lazar of St. Louis, who suffered several fractures of arms and limbs, and was otherwise bruised. She was thought to be dying last night at her room in the St. Charles.

Her brother, Mr. A. A. Lazar and sister, Miss Jeannette Lazar, arrived from St. Louis yesterday morning to be with her.

Mr. George H. Stearns of Cincinnati, also at the St. Charles, is mending nicely. His father is with him.

Circuit Judge Halsey of Milwaukee is also recovering finely.

The remains of Mrs. Halsey, so far the only one killed in the wreck will be placed aboard the C. and O.'s passenger train No. 7 on a special car this afternoon at 4:15, in front of the St. Charles and taken to her home in Milwaukee, which she left only three days ago in happy anticipation of a pleasant trip East with her husband.

Brief funeral services will be conducted over Mrs. Halsey at 3:20 p. m. in the parlors of the hotel, Rev. George H. Harris, Rector of the Church of the Nativity officiating. Mr. Pierson L. Halsey, their son, arrived yesterday from Milwaukee, and has taken charge of matters and will accompany the remains of his mother back home. The Judge is also recovered sufficiently to permit him to go with his son.

The wife of Judge Halsey, was one of the most prominent women in Wisconsin. She was born July 19, 1842, in Buffalo, N. Y., and was a Miss Loverage before her marriage. She was a member of the Colonial Dames of America, in New York and Wisconsin; was Vice President of the Daughters of the American Revolution and a leading member of St. Mark's Episcopal Church of Milwaukee.

Judge Lawrence W. Halsey is a prominent member of the Milwaukee bar, being the present Circuit Judge of that city. He is Chancellor of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of the See of Milwaukee, and had held all of the state offices governing the Knights of Pythias. He and Mrs. Halsey were on their way East to visit relatives in New York.

Miss Lazar was hurt over the eye, has a fractured arm, and also fractured leg below ankle. Miss Madeline Lazar, is prominent in educational matters in her city, and at the time of the accident was en route to the Jamestown Exposition, where she was to take charge of the St. Louis School exhibit at the Fair.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Coroner Fred Dresel and a Jury held an inquest yesterday over the remains of Mrs. Halsey, and after hearing the testimony of the witnesses, handed down the following verdict:

We, the Jury, find the body as found to be Mrs. L. W. Halsey, of Milwaukee, Wis., who came to her death from injuries sustained from an accident on train No. 2, C. and O. Railway, wrecked at Lawrence creek, Mason county, Ky., at about 1:25 p. m. Wednesday, May, 22d, 1907.

CAUSE OF WRECK.

The evidence given before the Coroner's Jury brings out some new features regarding the cause of the accident, and shews how conflicting all theories may be following the excitement attending such things.

Mr. Bosby of Acme Milling Co., Indianapolis, who was on the train, says:

"I was on the coach next to the Observation Car and the jar almost took me off my seat."

THE Court of Appeals has handed down another decision further clarifying the beclouded temperance atmosphere and also elucidating one of the hitherto unnoticed features of the local option question, which is in the nature of a recoil upon the local optioners and declares how, in a "wet" county a "dry" Precinct would be wet. In the case at bar the Court, among other things, declares

Fifth—Purpose of Act of 1906—Will of Entire County. The purpose of the election is to ascertain the will of the county as a whole, not the will of any particular Precinct. If the county should vote in favor of the sale the Precincts which vote against the sale would not have the right to have their vote so recorded and the law declared thereafter in force in those Precincts.

THE Charleston (South Carolina) News and Courier, the most rabid of all Democratic journals, hands this hot one to Mr. WILLIE BRYAN:

"The chances are eight to ten that BRYAN will be nominated by the Democratic party and, if he be nominated, the chances are ninety-nine in the hundred that he will be defeated. The man who broke up the Democratic party is not the man to save the Democratic party. But for his crazy leadership the party would be in power today."

HERE'S a pretty howdy do, in a so-called dry local option town. At Danville a "Law and Order League" has been organized for the purpose of instituting a campaign against "blind tigers" and other animals indigenous to local option communities. The principal mission of local option seems to be to take the license off of liquor and then scour the country to find the men who dispense the contraband goods.

MAY 20th was the fifth anniversary of Cuban "independence." About fifteen-fourteenths of Cuban independence, consists of the liberty they enjoy of chicken fighting, bull fighting, and all other kinds of sports and gambling. "Cuba libre" is a govermental ideal with the lid blown off. It requires the guiding hand of our esteemed Uncle Sam's to run things as they should be run in the Queen of the Antilles.

WISE GIRL.

LIFE.

Now, there was a certain girl and she had three wooers. The first wooper said she was the whole world to him, but she frowned upon his suit. The second wooper said she was the sun, moon and stars to him, but she bade him off on his way.

"To me," said the third, "you are a young woman of agreeable manners, with eyes that might be a little bluer, with a nose that is a wee bit puggy, and with a few freckles and an annoying habit of blurting out your thoughts.

She married the third wooper. Being pressed for an explanation of her conduct, she said:

"My goodness! I think I was sensible. I married the only one that had courage enough to tell me of my faults before marriage, instead of waiting to throw them up to me afterward."

They are at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Immediately after their arrival at the hospital Wednesday evening, Drs. Holmes, Neal and Hedrick operated upon the mother and two daughters. Mrs. Van Valkenberg's nose was broken and she was badly cut about the forehead and face. It was feared she might lose her sight, but Dr. Holmes is hopeful. The mother suffers chiefly from the great shock.

The eldest daughter suffered injury to the nasal organ necessitating a very delicate operation. The younger daughter suffered a sprained back.

JURIST A "PRISONER"

Judge Thomas R. Gordon Locked Up In County Courthouse

Judge Thomas R. Gordon of the Common Pleas Division, at Louisville, found himself confronted with an embarrassing and laughable situation, that of being imprisoned in the Jefferson County Courthouse, when he started home from his office in the building at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

He had remained at his office attending to business until all the other attaches had left, and unknown to him the doors had been securely fastened by the night watchman.

Upon discovering his predicament Judge Gordon telephoned to a Guard at the Jefferson County Jail, who immediately went in search of the Night Watchman, who was making his rounds. An hour passed before the Watchman was located and thus obtained the release of the Judge.

FIGHTING CONSUMPTION

Measures Adopted by the City Council at Mt. Sterling

Where there is a case of consumption in the family, other members shall not remain in the room for any length of time except those in charge of the patient, spittoons with disinfectants must be provided; fine $2 to $5 for violations.

All public places must have ample supply of spittoons with proper disinfectants; fine $10 to $25.

The Court of Appeals' decision in Louisville election cases is cheering information to Kentucky Republicans. The days of ballot-box stuffing in Louisville are now over and a few Democratic bosses and Policemen will no longer name the men to fill a hundred offices, solely for purposes of keeping the machine intact.
